KOREA AMERICA TAE KWON DO EXPANDS TO HERITAGE COURT SHOPPING CENTER
New Coachella Valley Location at Fred Waring and Jefferson

PALM DESERT, CA (July 5, 2011) ... Heather Sharp, President of Sharp Commercial, Inc., announced the expansion of Korea America Tae Kwon Do with a Coachella Valley location at Heritage Court Shopping Center. This is the third location for Korea America and the first in the Coachella Valley. The other locations are in Yucca Valley and Desert Hot Springs.

Heritage Court is located in Indio on the corner of Jefferson and Fred Waring. Other tenants include Walgreens, Subway, and It's a Grind.

"We are excited to have Korea America join Heritage Court. The use complements our existing tenants and provides a service that was lacking in the area. It's encouraging to see the local business owners expanding." says Sharp.

According to Head Master, Jeong K. An, "My goal is to open quality schools that give everyone a chance to learn martial arts regardless of age. With the opening of this location, it allows me to reach out to more of the desert community. I invite everyone to stop by and take advantage of the Grand Opening special offers I'm extending."

Head Master An is a 7th degree black belt who's originally a Korean native. The school's motto "Building the Confidence and Discipline to be Your Best Self" is at the core of their self defense and martial arts programs.

The facility is over 1,600 square feet and is open 10:30am – 8:30pm Monday-Friday, 9am-12pm on Saturday and closed on Sunday. They specialize in working with children and accept students starting at age 4 ½. Classes in fitness, self defense, discipline and self improvement for adults and families round out their comprehensive list of services.
